

MBSC September Newsletter

MBSC

Orientation day

Another successful orientation day filled with excitement and new faces as MBSC welcomes both Riyadh and KAEC cohorts class of 2026.

Discover More

INSIDER INSIGHTS

Insider Insights

Dr. Tarek El Masri

Ask, learn, and explore with Insider Insights as Dr. Tarek El Masri, Assistant Professor of Accounting, will answer your questions and concerns related to Financial Accounting, Managerial Accounting, and/or Family Firm's Corporate Governance.

Discover More

Highlights

Saudi national day

Saudi national day - During this memorable day, the entire college community embracing diverse nationalities and backgrounds, came together to celebrate Saudi National Day. The day event highlighted the rich cultural heritage of Saudi Arabia, featuring traditional cuisine such as Kabsa, a variety of desserts, and authentic Arabic coffee, creating a vibrant and inclusive atmosphere that honored the nation's history and unity.

Discover More

MBSC

Student achievement

Prince Mohammed Bin Salman College of Business and Entrepreneurship congratulates Mohammed bin Abdulaziz Alaqeel, Executive MBA student, on the release of his new book titled: "Towards Safer Supply Chains: Utilizing Modern Technologies for Monitoring the Safety of Food, Drugs, and Medical Devices"

Discover More

MBSC

Student achievement

Student achievement: MBSC congratulates our dear student MOHAMMED AL-JUMAH on his new position as Assistant Vice President at H.E The Governor's Office - Public Investment Fund (PIF).

Discover More

Follow us on:

